Denver Area SMARTBOX to Sponsor Walk to Support Huntington's Disease Research

DENVER, CO, August 12, 2009 – SMARTBOX of Denver is proud to announce that they will be sponsoring the Team Hope Walk on Saturday, August 15, 2009 at Stapleton Central Park in Denver, CO. This will be the third year that SMARTBOX of Denver has sponsored this event, which benefits the Huntington's Disease Society of America. "We are excited to be a part of such a great event, and enjoy working with an organization that has helped so many people affected by this illness," said brothers Rich and Tom Wilcox, owners of SMARTBOX of Denver.

SMARTBOX, founded in 2004, enables residential and commercial users to pack and load their belongings at their convenience in containers that are 8 feet long, 7 feet tall and 5 feet wide and can hold the contents of up to 1½ rooms (3,000 pound capacity). When they've finished packing their Smartboxes, users can call SMARTBOX to pick them up and deliver them for storage in one of its secure warehouses or for moving to another location – across town or across the country – through its SMARTBOX Long Distance network.
